Your Caddie Tours driver/guide Eamonn Dempsey will welcome you to Ireland and escort you and your luggage to the coach. We then travel west to have breakfast at the Johnstown House Estate in Co. Kildare. Onto to visit Kilbeggan Distillery. As the oldest licensed distillery of its kind in Ireland, the Kilbeggan Distilling Company has seen its share of trials and triumphs. Founded in 1757, the distillery spent the next 200 years making a whiskey beloved the world over. So when tough times ground its gears to a halt, the town came together to save the whiskey that built the town. It wasn't quick or easy, but they persevered. Today, every bottle produced stands as proof that the spirit of Kilbeggan never wavered. Our Distillery Kilbeggan is a place full of stories worth telling, and people worthy of telling them. Pictures and print can attempt to do it justice, but there is no substitute for visiting Kilbeggan and the Kilbeggan Distillery, and seeing first-hand how the town and distillery have evolved since 1757. Daily tours allow visitors to see how the distillery has married the whiskey-making traditions of yesteryear with the innovative spirit of today, and the townspeople are a vibrant lot, known to turn strangers into friends in a matter of minutes. Arrive in Galway late afternoon before joining up with your fellow travelers for a welcome dinner in the hotel restaurant.

TUESDAY, MAY 9th – CLIFFS OF MOHER AND DINGLE

After breakfast we'll drive through Ireland's stony place – The Burren. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. This is not the green Ireland of postcards. But there are wildflowers in spring, giving the 560-sq-km Burren brilliant, if ephemeral, color amid its ascetic beauty. Continuing on to the Cliffs of Moher (11am visit) are astonishing impressive and staggeringly beautiful. The entirely vertical cliffs rise to a height of 203m, their edge falling away abruptly into a ceaselessly churning Atlantic. A progression of vast heads, the dark limestone marches in a rigid formation that's gob-smacking, no matter how many times you look at it. As you leave the cliffs you'll travel through the little village of Liscannor and just across the bay, you'll see the beautiful seaside village and golfers' mecca, Lahinch. Continue to Killmer and cross the Shannon Estuary by ferry to Co. Kerry and onto Dingle for 2 nights. Stop at the South Pole Inn, home to famous Antarctic explorer Tom Crean for an Irish coffee and learn more about the famous explorer. The inn is in Annascaul, Kerry near Inch Strand where they made the movie 'Ryan's Daughter' with actor Robert Mitchum. Join your fellow travelers for dinner tonight in the Coastguard restaurant.

Dingle is a Gealtacht or Irish speaking area, one of the few remaining places in rural Ireland where the ancient language is still spoken. The harbor is filled with fishing boats and tiny brightly painted pubs that portray a time that has continued to stand still. We will travel the famous Sleat Head Drive where along the way, we will see beehive style huts that were originally inhabited by 12th century monks overlooking the rugged Blasket Islands and Skellig Michael where Star Wars was filmed. Enjoy a demonstration of highly-skilled sheepdogs herding sheep at a local farm. The awe-inspiring beauty of this area is unmatched and there is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. We will return to Dingle Town where you can have lunch on your own and enjoy the rest of the day with some free time wandering the many beautiful streets and shops of Dingle. THURSDAY, MAY 12th – THE RING OF KERRY & VALENTIA ISLAND

After breakfast we depart for Caherdaniel to visit Derrynane House, the Oakwood of St Fionán, stands at the very tip of the Iveragh Peninsula in Co. Kerry. Sheltered within the woodland stands Derrynane House, the ancestral home of Daniel O'Connell, lawyer, politician and statesman, and one of the great figures in modern Irish history. Many relics of O'Connell's life and career are preserved in Derrynane House, but the house is more than just a museum. Derrynane was one of the great influences on Daniel O'Connell's life as he himself was always ready to admit. For several generations, it had been the ancestral home of the O'Connell's. It had been his own childhood home and, throughout his career, it was his country residence. He and his family spent most summers at Derrynane. It was here that he was host to many guests in the surroundings that he loved and here he indulged his passion for beagling. Many books have been written about O'Connell but one can perhaps gain a greater insight into his character by visiting his home at Derrynane and experiencing the surroundings familiar to him during his life. We continue through Waterville, the only seafront village on the famous Ring of Kerry in Southwest Ireland as we make our way to Valentia Island we will have lunch at the Moorings in Portmagee. After lunch we will visit The Valentia Transatlantic Cable Station. Over 150 years ago, the first successful transatlantic telegraph cable was laid between Valentia Island in Ireland and Heart's Content in Newfoundland, Canada, connecting the Old World with the new World. The wire that changed the world, the Eighth Wonder of the World, reduced the time to send a message across the ocean from weeks to minutes and heralded the birth of global communications. The laying of the Transatlantic Cable is a story of human endurance, science, adventure and genius and is told in the immersive visitor experience at the Valentia Cable Station. Listen to the entrepreneur Cyrus Field I and the Knight of Kerry regale about their adventure, try to send your own morse code message and try to break the code, learn about the underwater cables of today and how communications technology has changed. Return to Sneem.
